

UTRECHT

//////PRACTICAL//////

ITALIAN AND SPANISH MIGRANTS IN ARGENTINA

//////INFORMATION//////

DECEMBER 2018

///DIRECTIONS///

From Amsterdam Airport Schiphol to Utrecht Central train station

By train

Trains to Utrecht Central train station depart nearly every 15 minutes. For current train schedules see <https://www.ns.nl/en>. Take the Intercity train (not the Sprinter train). The journey lasts about 30 minutes. Buy your ticket at one of the NS ticket machines (yellow and blue) or at the ticket office.

By taxi

Contact Taxi Airport Schiphol at +31622553382.

From Utrecht Central train station to the Apollo Hotel

5 minute walk. You can find further directions here.

From the Apollo Hotel to the conference

10 minute walk. You can find further directions here. Please note you enter Drift 21 through the University Library at Drift 27.

From the Apollo Hotel to Instituto Cervantes (opening ceremony)

10 minute walk. You can find further directions here.

//USEFUL APPS//

9292

A travel planner for all public transport in the Netherlands.

Google Play

App Store

Utrecht City Guide App

With this free Utrecht City Guide you have all relevant information always at hand.

Google Play

//WHERE TO STAY//

Court Hotel (Korte Nieuwstraat 14) ****

Hotel NH Utrecht (Jaarbeursplein 24) ****

Mary K Hotel (Oudegracht 25) ***

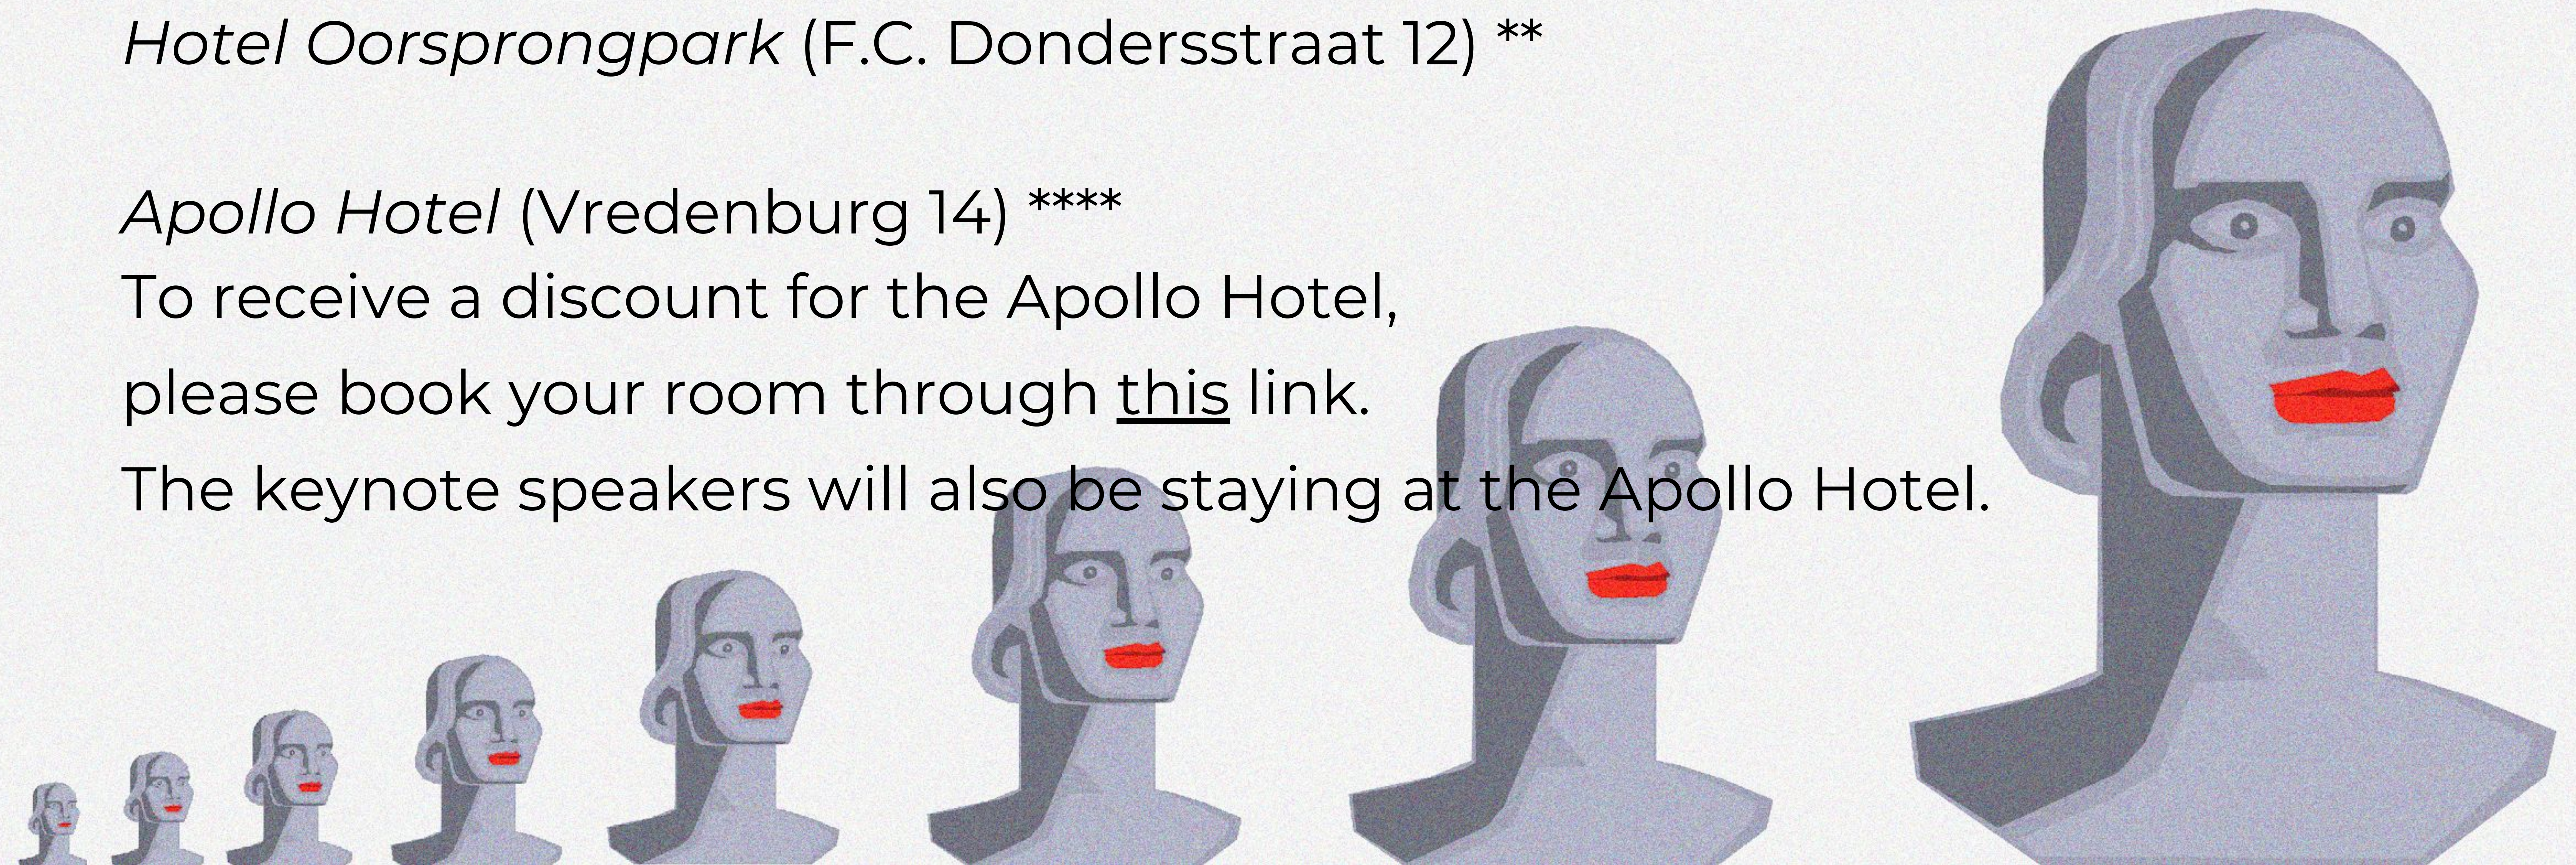

Mother Goose B&B (Ganzenmarkt 26) ***

Hotel Oorsprongpark (F.C. Dondersstraat 12) **

Apollo Hotel (Vredenburg 14) ****

To receive a discount for the Apollo Hotel, please book your room through this link.

The keynote speakers will also be staying at the Apollo Hotel.

WHAT TO DO?!

The beating heart of the Netherlands, this medium-sized medieval city is characterized by cobweb of canals, modern architecture and small alleyways. With its vibrant, creative, inspirational soul, Utrecht is home to trendy shops and unique museums.

Cinemas, Theaters and Museums

't Hoogt (Hoogt 4)

Located in the city center, this film house screens European movies and documentaries.

Louis Hartlooper Complex (Tolsteegbrug 1)

This former police station screens old movies and more popular quality films.

Springhaver (Springweg 50)

Collaborates with Louis Hartlooper Complex and screens a great variety of art house films.

TivoliVredenburg (Vredenburgkade 11)

With one of the best sound systems in the Netherlands, they serve you pop, classic, jazz, symphony orchestra's and much more.

Museum Speelklock (Steenweg 6)

Unique museum of carillon and other self-playing musical instruments.

Centraal Museum (Agnietenstraat 3)

The gateway to art and culture from the world of Utrecht.

Museum Catharijneconvent (Lange Nieuwstraat 38)

The history of Christianity in the Netherlands through centuries-old art as well as contemporary art.

WHAT TO DO?!

Markets

Utrecht has several markets where you can find typical Dutch food such as poffertjes and stroopwafels.

Vredenburg

Wed, Fri, Sat 10.00 – 17.00 hrs
Groceries, toiletries.

Vredenburg

Fri 10.00 – 17.00hrs Organic food.

Breedstraat

Sa 08.00 – 13.00 hrs Fabric.

Jacobskerkhof

Sa 08.00 – 17.00 hrs Flee Market.

Janskerkhof

Sa 07.00 – 17.00 hrs Flowers and plants.

Oudegracht

Sa 08.00 – 17.00 hrs Flowers and plants.

Lunch and coffee

Bigoli (Schoutenstraat 7)

Try one of their many Italian sandwiches.

De Burgemeester (Korte Minrebroederstraat 5)

Lunchroom with great soups, sandwiches and pastries.

De Bakkerswinkel (Wittevrouwenstraat 2)

Perfect for a muffin during lunch break, or to enjoy a nice high-tea.

KEEK (Twijnstraat 23) (art and honest coffee).

Often packed, this lunchroom serves delicious organic food.

The Village Coffee (Voorstraat 46)

Hipster coffee place with great selection of pastries.

De Zaak (Korte Minrebroederstraat 9)

Their terrace is the place to be on a sunny day. Feel free to bring your own food.

Dinner

Delphi's (Neude 29)

Authentic Mediterranean cuisine, with a twist.

Santa Lucia (Nobelstraat 14)

Cosy Italian trattoria.

Saigon (Voorstraat 68)

Thai-Vietnamese restaurant that serves tasty food at a good price.

Het Gegeven Paard

(Vredenburgkade 11)

This restaurant at the well-known TivoliVredenburg theater offers great food and drinks in a modern atmosphere.

Spaghetteria

(Wittenvrouwensingel 44)

Young and vibrant restaurant with homemade Italian pasta.

Night Life

The Florin (Nobelstraat 2-4)

English pub with fresh beers and ciders.

Hoffman (Janskerkhof)

A fun, laid back bar-dancing. Disco on Friday and Saturday.

Kafe België (Oudegracht 196)

Choose from over 200 kinds of beer in a relaxed atmosphere.

't Oude Pothuys (Oudegracht 279)

Live music and a terrace on the canal.

!!WHAT TO DO?!!

SEE YOU IN UTRECHT!

Artwork: interpretations of the work of Maruja Mallo (1902-1995), a Spanish painter who spent part of her life as an exile in Argentina.

